

Silent Auction Donation Items Needed!

Every year at our annual CAS Conference and Meeting, the Alice Hamilton Scholarship Committee sponsors a Silent Auction to fill the coffers for the next round of scholarship awards to be presented in the spring. This is the major fundraising event for the year! We can't do this without your contributions.

To support this effort, please search your collections, libraries, closets and pantries for interesting items to donate. Consider things like books and reports about archaeology, paintings and photography of sites and rock art. Topo maps? How about earrings and other jewelry, even Native American pawn, that you really don't wear anymore? Gently used clothing items with an arch'y logo or rock art motif? People appreciate a wine basket or home-canned goods. Handy hiking gear or excavation tools are popular. We have pottery-makers and other crafters in the group who can promote their talents. Business cards are welcome.

Bring your goodies to the meeting Saturday morning, fill out a bid sheet and put the items on display.

Not able to attend in person? Please find out who else is going and send your items with them. There is a board meeting at the Shrine Club Friday evening, so you might be able to send items with a board member. Please provide information about the items and a suggested opening bid, if you are not going to bring them in person.

The Auction closes just after the Saturday banquet, and your new treasures can be paid for and retrieved after the keynote speaker.
